Jeff Harper

Jeff Harper was the 1976 SEAIS Football Player of the Year at Monroe Academy in Forsyth and earned All-State honors for three straight years with the Mustangs. Jeff signed a football scholarship with the University of Georgia where he played offensive guard (#66) for three seasons under Head Coach Vince Dooly, and was a member of the 1980 National Championship Team. After his collegiate career, Jeff played two seasons in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints, and in the USFL with the Oakland Invaders and Pittsburgh Maulers.
